

101 ways to support MISSIONARY WORK

1. Feed the elders
2. Go on splits
3. Participate in a ward baptism
4. Go to the temple
5. Prepare a name for the temple
6. Socialize with new people at church
7. Be a faithful HT/VT
8. Invite ward members over to your home
9. Participate in gospel principles class
10. Send a note to a friend
11. Invite nonmembers to a blessing, baptism, wedding
12. Invite a friend to a ward activity
13. Invite someone to church
14. Pass out a strength of youth pamphlet
15. Give the missionaries a name
16. Pray for a missionary experience
17. Tell friends about what brings you happiness
18. Reach out and talk about the plan of salvation with someone experiencing a loss
19. Subscribe to the ensign and display in your home or share a message
20. Get to know your neighbors
21. Ask others what church they belong to or faith they have
22. Participate in service projects
23. Explain to friends why you/children may not participate in certain activities on Sundays
24. Invite a family over for family night
25. Fast as a family for a missionary experience
26. Reach out to a less active family
27. Give someone a ride to church
28. Study preach my gospel
29. Pay into the missionary fund
30. Call someone you noticed wasn't at church that day
31. Write a letter
32. Pray for a specific individuals heart to be softened
33. Use the Christmas holiday to share a testimony of Christ
34. Order a video DVD from church head quarters to share
35. Invite someone into the church building or chapel
36. Participate in activities at the church and invite friends; mutual, bball, etc
37. Share a gospel cd or song with someone who may need it
38. Send a Mormon Message video to someone
39. Strengthen a relationship with a nonmember family member
40. Teach sons or young men the importance of serving a mission
41. Share insights from your personal missionary journal
42. Save money for your children to serve missions
43. Get your finances in order so you may serve a couple's mission
44. Index names for the temple
45. Participate in genealogy
46. Record your testimony for your posterity
47. Get to know the churches in the area to be informed about other congregations or religions around you
48. Participate in columns or news articles that discuss principles of religion
49. Be involved with media that concerns the church and discuss it openly with others
50. Dissolve misconceptions or long standing myths about the church
51. Encourage your children to invite a friend to an activity
52. Hold family prayer or scripture study even if others are in your home
53. Pray over your food if hosting people or a group at your home
54. Explain the purpose of your clothing and why you dress modestly and avoid extremes
55. Tell someone about the word of wisdom next time the discussion of health or fitness arises
56. Write a letter to a missionary in our ward
57. Read the scriptures to find stories about powerful missionaries
58. Research the growth of the church in recent years and make a timeline of events
59. Express your gratitude to someone who has influenced your testimony or introduced you to the gospel (call, note, email)
60. Report the needs of the sisters you visit teach to the president
61. Invite a friend to hear you sing a special musical number or participate in the choir or give a talk in sacrament meeting
62. Tell someone about the church welfare system if the discussion of a natural disaster comes up
63. Tell someone why you have food storage
64. Over conference weekend, tell someone about living prophets and revelation
65. Order a subscription to the Ensign for your office or work place
66. Ask someone about their conversion story to their faith
67. Discuss what a temple marriage means when someone asks how long you've been married or around your anniversary
68. When buying something at the store for a church function, tell the cashier what it's for (RS dessert, girls camp, food storage)
69. Invite someone to a temple open house
70. Be a friend to someone lonely in church and sit by them
71. Get to know the elders in your ward
72. Set a time frame or goals when you'd like to shoot for a missionary experience and then pray for it to happen
73. Invite someone to the visitor center of the temple
74. Use your social media profiles for good
75. Memorize the articles of faith to share with someone
76. Read the Book of Mormon in a public place, just as you would with the Bible
77. Give someone who loves music a copy of our Hymn book
78. Help Elders save their miles by offering rides
79. Next time you go to the temple, mention it to someone and explain why we have temples
80. If a questionable movie comes up, share your testimony about clean media
81. Keep the Sabbath day holy
82. Read about Christ's ministry
83. Support the bishop or your presidencies
84. Visit the poor and sick
85. Tell someone about seminary or institute programs
86. Bear your testimony in sacrament meeting
87. Visit someone you have stewardship over in a calling
88. Create a profile on Mormon.org
89. Share a Bible Video with someone who believes in Christ
90. Tell someone about your mission or someone who served
91. Give out a pass along card
92. Invite someone to Girls Camp or Scout Camp
93. Invite a neighbor or friend to a playgroup or social activity
94. Pay your tithing/fast offerings
95. Tell someone you love about your favorite scriptures, testify
96. Support young men in the ward
97. Live missionary standards
98. Set missionary goals as a family
99. Study the missionary handbook
100. Learn a new language
101. Give someone a Book of Mormon

plant, nourish, harvest